

Using Community Resources in TargetSolutions

You also have access to trainings and documents that have been created by Fire Departments all over the country through the Community Resources option:

For example, if you want to start a Cadet program and are curious what other departments have done, go to the community resource link and enter “Cadet” in the “Search Resources” box. Click on “Search” and you will find a list of items to review.

